

Central Speedway 100-Lapper

Miller--Miller's Central Speedway will host one of its biggest shows in the history of the track on September 18 when they will pay a purse over $2,000.

Nearly all of the top stock car drivers in the state, and perhaps many from out of state will be on hand for the all-stock car show that will include a 100-lap feature event.

The winner of the feature will take home over $400 for winning the 100-lap test. Only the top 24 cars in the field will be allowed to run on the Central Speedway three-eighths mile oval for the main event.

The feature will be started straight up, with the heat winners taking the lead positions in the starting field.

Second place in the feature event will pay $250 and third will get $150. Fourth place will pay $100 and the fifth place winner will receive $75.

The next finishers will get 10 dollars less down to 13-20 places where they will receive twenty dollars apiece.

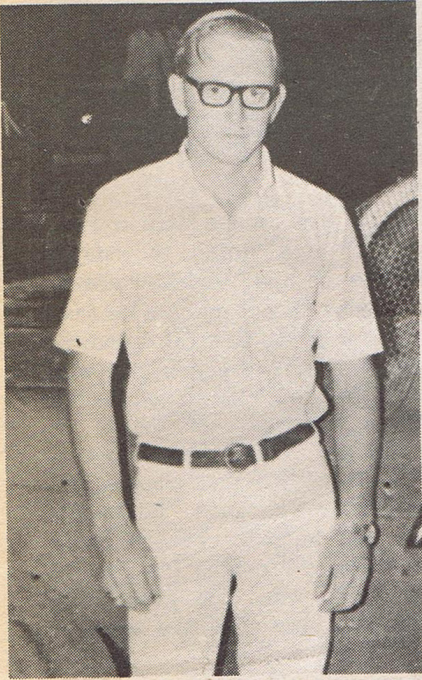

A 25-lap B feature will also be held, paying $70 to the winner and $60 to second place. Heat races will pay $30 to win down to $10 for fifth place in each of four heats.

The event will begin at 8 p.m. Saturday night and in the case of rain the alternate date is 2 p.m. Sept. 19.

This race, along with the one the following night at the Fairgrounds Speedway in Huron, is one racing fans in South Dakota will not want to miss.
